PanAmericana in the 80th.

Walter Stolte:

I knew him since a lot of years, and he gave me the idea to do this Adventure by myself.

So i did it from 1992-1995. Walter and me, we rode from the North to the south of the Americas.

Today there is a young man, Nikolas, on his way from the South to the North. More then the half way is done...

Good luck to him!
